Our Universe

Dedication . . .

WE DEDICATE OUR 1953 MONROVIAN TO THE STUDENTS WHO GRADUATE FROM OUR MINIATURE UNIVERSE INTO THE NEW AND ADVENTUROUS OUTER SPACE.

Foreword

To many M.A.D. is unimportant; to us M.A.D. is our universe, a complete unit, of which each of us is an important part. Throughout our years in high school our life revolves around our activities—worlds in themselves.

Our Cosmic

Another year, another step completed in our teen-age career, which could not have been so successful without the support of our administrative leaders. Mr. McClintic, Mr. Forney, and Mr. Williamson have substituted for the traditional whip in the heavy hand a friendly understanding of the students' viewpoint.

Immune to double talk, our deans and counselors listen to such time-worn excuses but can't yield to our pleas. From the freshman to the senior class we are grateful to them for advice and wise guidance.

Our teachers are not always telling us to sign the "guest book" or to read three million pages. Away from the madness of the MADites, they also try to forget school and have fun.

In the fall around the Bailey's swimming pool, they had a party with a bathing beauty(?) contest for special entertainment.

This year some teachers escaped us long enough to travel around the world.

Others displayed their extra-curricular talents in assemblies, in the sports world, and in filming travelogues.

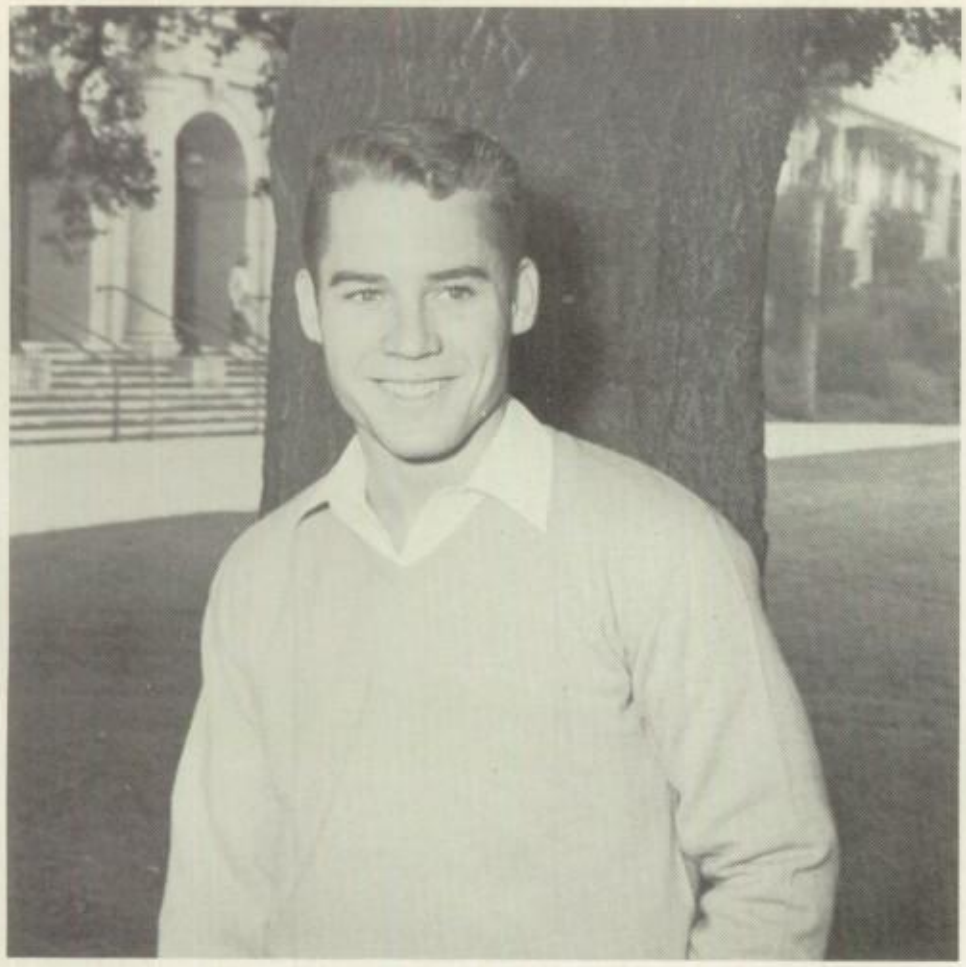
New Addition

At last are realized our dreams for our fledgling student store, which has not yet had opportunity to develop traditions but is well on its way toward becoming a very necessary supply center. Here the students reluctantly give their money to Mrs. Fox for homework supplies and much more willingly buy materials less mentally fatiguing, such as tickets, car decorations, and rooters' caps.

Old Stand-by

At snack time or noon you will find here one of the busiest worlds of our universe, with Ma Parks acting as hostess and all of her boys responding to the demands of the hungry hordes.



BRUCE BALLARD, A.S.B. PRESIDENT

Our 1952-1953 leader of our universe, Bruce Ballard, and his Council for the Improvement of School Facilities have set worlds in motion for the betterment of our universe. Their dreams to redecorate the auditorium, to install improved facilities in the gymnasiums, and to build our long-awaited swimming pool will not be realized until next year, but it is through their efforts that these dreams will turn into reality. Spurred on by Bruce's enterprising leadership, our A.S.B. officers have proved that action speaks louder than words.

Versatile Bruce is not only our leader, but he is also an active member of our Monarcs, Scholarship Society, Key Club, Lettermen, and Block M.

Student Leaders of ROW 1: Romney, Snyder, Hamilton, Malone, Furgerson, Scott, Billman.

ROW 2: Cope, Thomas, Stein, Groat, Henry, Watenpaugh, Jessen, Sturgeon.

our M A D world.

STUDENT BODY CABINET

Early in the year, John Sturgeon and his Hi-week Committee and Pat Hamilton and her "A.S.B. cards lately" started a chain reaction of excellent assemblies, roaring pep rallies, and fabulous dances, announced by the particular excellence of the colorful posters of Barbara Scott and Joe Henry.

This year's club program was mentored by Lois Malone and Joe Rayle. Tom Jessen, Jack Groat, and Carolyn Snyder publicized all of our games throughout the year, and Bob Cope kept the intramural program running smoothly.

Nancy Billman, chancellor of the exchequer, and Mary Furgerson, royal scribe, kept our finances and records in excellent condition.

These Madites, pooling their many talents, have done more than their part to make this one of M.A.D.'s greatest years.

C.I.S.F.

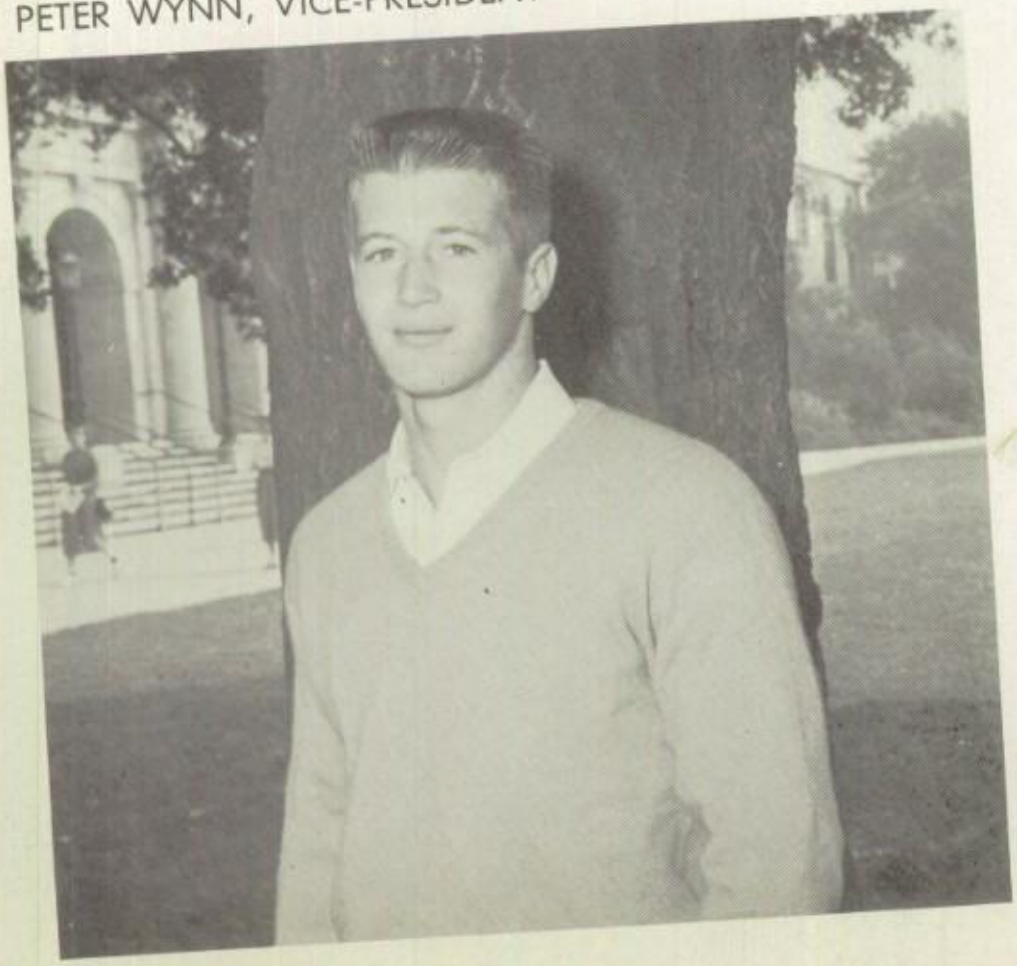
Calling itself the Council for the Improvement of School Facilities, a new organization made its debut on our campus this year. Composed of students as well as faculty members and townspeople, the C.I.S.F. went to work on our school needs. The findings of a detailed survey led to a March bond election. Results for the future will be improvement of existing facilities and expansion of courses offered.

ROW 1: Thomas, Ballard, Wynn, Groat.
ROW 2: Sturgeon, Mr. Frank Williamson, Rayle.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Walker, McKinley, Chaffers, Cullinane, Rogers, Hansen, Hardy, Buster.

PETER WYNN, VICE-PRESIDENT



Our House of Representatives plays an important part in the functioning of our student democracy. Like our representatives in Washington, these diplomats scurry around trying to find ideas for new laws, and like all politicians, they find that lawmaking isn't an easy job. They receive suggestions for improvement, ponder over them, and convert them into useful legislation.

Their proficient leader, Pete Wynn, vice president of the Associated Student Body, assisted Bruce Ballard not only in assemblies but in C.I.S.F. planning. As vice president, Pete has done much in furthering the interests of our school activities.

Excelling in sports, Pete belongs to our scholarship society and our honorary service clubs.

Law Enforcers

Naughty little girls and boys, accused by watchful hall commissioners of such felonies as no hall passes, exuberant voices, and munching cafeteria specials, face possible capital punishment, as meted out by the high tribunal of Paul Floth and his court of judges.

STUDENT COURT
ROW 1: Floth, Fulks, Billig, Blake, Mr. Mitchell Oliver.

ROW 2: Fanton, Hamblen, Anderson, Gorham, Shroeder, Miller, Lawson, Dyer, Reedall, Allingham, McCall, L. Yocum, Ewald, Semler, Dye, Warren.
ROW 3: S. Yocum, Metcalf, Coppersmith, Wolf, Holt, Braeger, Tobias, Cullinane, Garcia, Grondzik, McCall, Broadhead, Fauria, Bartley.
ROW 4: Wynn, Heritage, McNerney, Marto, Skelton, Shade, Price, Haserot, Wright, Mr. Edward Ryan.

Girls' League Cabinet

GIRLS' LEAGUE OFFICERS

Sally Eggstaff, Vice-President;
Carol Jacobs, President.

A back-to-school fashion show, a very successful coed dance, the popular mother-daughter banquet, a Christmas welfare project, the establishing of a scholarship for a worthy senior girl, an animated League Play—these were the activities of the Girl's League for 1952-53. Much credit is due Carol Jacobs, her cabinet, and the Girls' League sponsors, Mrs. Helen Adams and Mrs. Patricia DeMerre, for leading the girls of our school through an enjoyable and profitable year.

ROW 1: Braeger, Wofford, Falcon, Halley, McConnell, Crellin, Jacobs, Harrison, Collins, Mrs. Patricia DeMerre.
ROW 2: Mrs. Helen Adams, Budworth, Brown, Muller, Romney, Hester, Eggstaff, Dye, Billig.

Cope, Evans, Floth, Clark, Groat, Mr. Robert Manning, Weber, Kendall.

Boys' League Cabinet

Being primarily interested in athletics, the Boys' League this year concentrated on selling football programs, sponsoring a donkey basketball game, and awarding a trophy to the most improved football player.

President Bob Gagliano, his cabinet, and Mr. Robert Manning, Boys' League sponsor, are the leaders who planned the programs.

BOYS' LEAGUE OFFICERS

Earl Clark, Vice-President;
Bob Gagliano, President

MADQUIN OFFICERS

Andrea Stelle, President;
Marilyn Strauss, Secretary-Treasurer

Madquins

When they were freshmen, they listened. When they were sophomores, they studied. When they were juniors, they hoped. When they were seniors, they were Madquins.
Proud of their honor and ambition, these twenty girls have served our school by donating a White Christmas to needy families, giving birthday presents to underprivileged children, and serving at dinners. Pot-luck suppers and parties were on their list of diversions.
Their leaders, Andrea Stelle, Marilyn Strauss, and Miss Foreman, their sponsor, deserve praise and thanks for all the fun and accomplishments on the Madquins' record for this year.

ROW 1: Hamblen, Scholl, Franklin, Weber, Jacobs, Wofford, Fulks, Falcon, McCormick.
ROW 2: Miss Ruth Foreman, Braeger, Strauss, Kiehl, Billman, Billig, Stelle, Eggstaff, Lewis, Budworth, Delaney.

ROW 1: Collins, D. Alutin, Rankin, Sturgeon, Jessen, Stein, Kendall, Cope, B. Alutin, Mr. Frank Williamson.
ROW 2: Gagliano, Wynn, Weitzman, Bishop, Watenpaugh, Groat, Floth, Stevens, Kipp, Clark.

Monarcs

Three long years of wishful thoughts and now these senior boys are Monarcs at last. With their jackets of maroon and silver they are known around the campus as leaders in sports, scholarship, and popularity. In January the Madquins and Monarcs gathered for a casual party at the home of President Dick Stephens. The crowning of Dick as Madquin king and Sally Eggstaff as Monarc queen was the climax of an evening of dancing and games.

Bob Alutin, vice-president, Art Kendall, secretary-treasurer, and Tom Jessen, sergeant-at-arms, together with the other boys, created a prize-winning float for the homecoming game.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Larry Cullinane, President; Rosemary Armstrong, Secretary; Susie Hardy, Treasurer; Micky McKinley, Vice-President.

Caught in the never-ending whirl of excitement of an upper classman is the enthusiastic junior. He knows now the struggle of United States history . . . the momentous choice of a class ring . . . the thrill of a first prom . . . and the challenge of chemistry. Just one more move and he will be a senior.

Sophomores,

SOPHOMORE OFFICERS

Tom Bishop, President; John Scott, Vice-President; Lucille Eggstaff, Secretary; Karen Weiss, Treasurer.

An old hand at alibiing his way out of the many problems he faces is the seasoned sophomore. Among the activities which complicate his life are cruel commissioners . . . grueling geometry . . . and marvellous school dances. Now far enough along to be admitted to the lower part of the auditorium, but not quite far enough advanced to attend proms, he struggles through his troubles . . . anticipating eagerly the long-awaited title . . . upper classman.

Your Monrovian Staff

Wildcat staff . . .

It's a melting pot all its own. It doesn't matter what campus clubs, classes, majors, or cliques are represented, members of "The Wildcat" staff are a unit.

It doesn't even matter whether some scribes work mainly on business, advertising, features, or pictures; the goals, gripes, and glees of thirty-eight galley personnel become unanimous.

Editor-in-chief Mirth Kiehl and Managing Editor Mary Ellen Romney control the 1952-53 'Cat's overall production by dreaming up "easy" assignments.

Linda Woolbert and Janet Gervais capably manage second and third pages, respectively. Stew Weitzman reigns over a world of his own—sports.

Four "Wildcats" have been published during minimum weeks, a newspaper was out on Thursday for "Go To School Night," thirty-three editions in all.

The staff is hard working—with a deadline in mind. But Advisor "T.T." has yet to see the Friday when anyone will write for next Friday's paper. It has almost become a tradition.

Strains of ah ah can be heard any first or sixth period floating out of the music room. Steady practice of exercises such as this made the mixed chorus one of Southern California's finest this year. Team work and talent are evident in the performances of the largest of our vocal groups. Mr. Chester Ullom has done a remarkable job as director.

Tick . . . tock . . . tick . . . tock . . . . . tick, tock, tick . . . beat the Syncopated Clock of Concert Choir I and II. It ticked away an active and successful year of school assemblies and outside programs. Whether singing the serene and mellow "Moonlight Sonata" or the gay and robust "Yugoslavian Folk Dance," the Concert Choirs near perfection.

Composed largely of music majors and entirely of advanced students, Concert Choir I is the zenith of our vocal organizations. The highlight of the year for this group occurred when it presented a night program for the Certified Grocers at the Biltmore Bowl.

Concert Choir II sang their favorite numbers for a Thanksgiving church service, for the McKinley Home for Boys, and for many P.T.A. Club meetings.

Mr. Chester Ullom's skill as music director was evident in the work of these outstanding groups.

ROW 4: Walker, Campbell, Antoine, Metcalf, Schoonover, Saylor, Muller, Schroeder, Deming, Stinecipher.

As the first step in the musical ladder of glee clubs and choirs, the Junior Girls' Glee Club is composed of girls who aspire to become Concert Choir members and girls who wish to sing just for enjoyment. Under the direction of Mrs. Hedvig Finkenbinder, they joined the Advanced Girls' Glee Club in their appearances at several musical festivals.

The Advanced Girls' Glee Club took part in many varied musical programs this year. In May a Girls' Glee Club assembly was presented that revealed for the first time the wealth of undiscovered talent we have in our school. These girls also participated in the Christmas Pageant, the Spring Festival, and a program for the Rotary Club.

The Boys' Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Chester Ullom, prepares boys for advanced music groups. Future interest in music is often stimulated by this club. While they have more than their share of fun, these boys also have their share of hard work.

"Show Time U. S. A."

"The drums go bang—the cymbals clang—and the horns they blaze away"—thus go the words of a song about a famous band. Well, we've got a band just as good at M.A.D., and every bit as famous. The Senior Band, under the baton of Mr. Harold Dunn, can give out with a toe-tapping march or a serious composition with equal ease and perfection.

CONCERT BAND

OBOES: Huntington Jones. FLUTES: Crowthers, Hartle, Haynes, Kiley, Michel, Yoder. "Klassical Klatter"

"Klassical Klatter" was the outstanding achievement of the M.A.D. orchestra this year. Rarely have we had such a varied musical program presented to the student body. Waltzing cats, braying horses, and hill-billy teachers kept the audience amply entertained, while music-lovers responded to the performance of beautiful classical masterpieces. Director Harold Scott has provided us once again with an excellent orchestra.

Eagerly looking forward to becoming members of the Senior Band and Orchestra, these aspiring musicians practice just as hard and diligently as the master musicians. The Junior Band is under the direction of Mr. Harold Dunn, while the Junior Orchestra is led by Mr. Harold Scott.

JUNIOR ORCHESTRA

VIOLIN: Batterson, Deardorff, Dibble, Murphey, Pelkey, Reynolds. CELLO: Mongar, Romney. STRING BASS: Willis. CLARINET: Busker, Lee. TRUMPET: McCourtney.

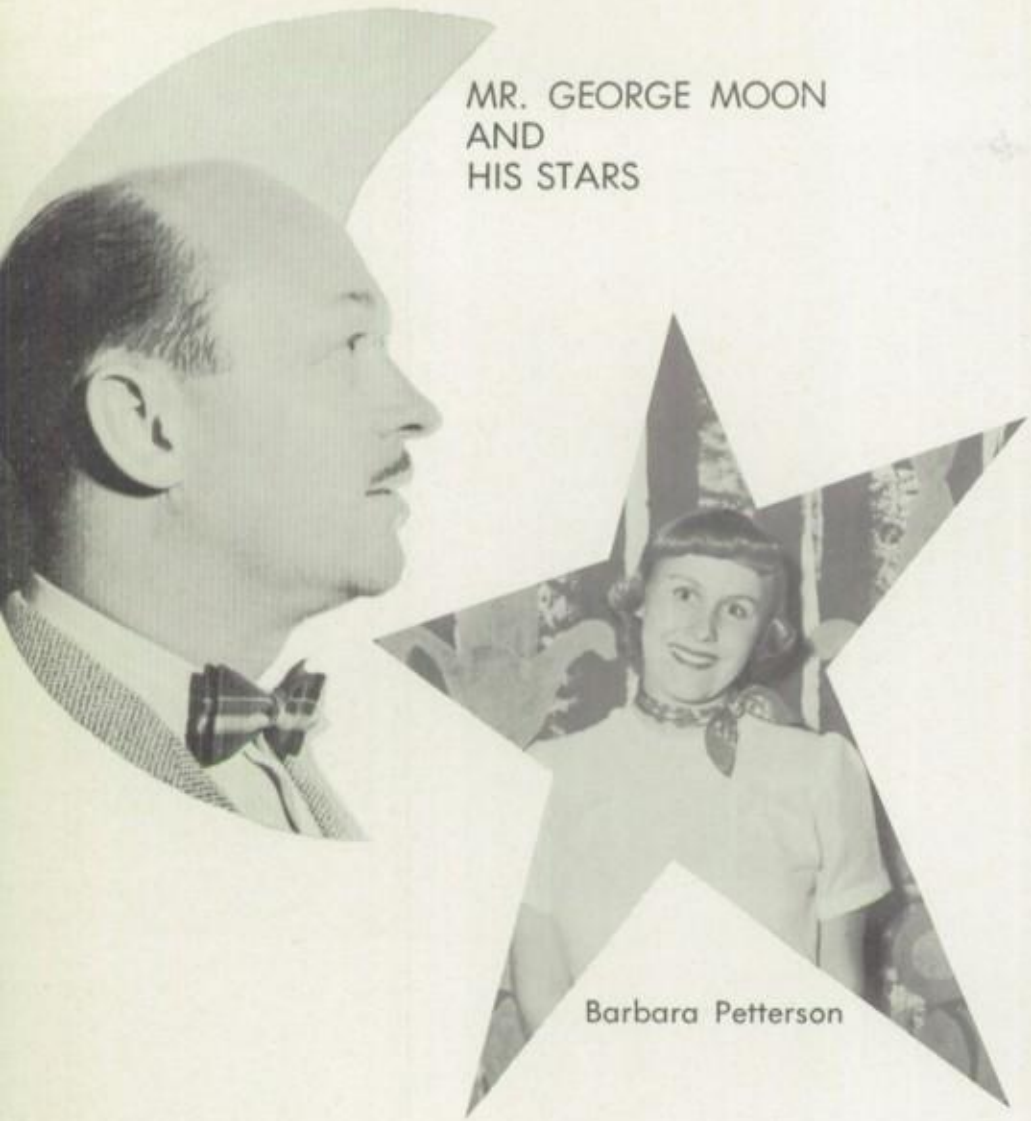
MR. GEORGE MOON AND HIS STARS



Barbara Petterson

"Ever Since Eve" was the League Play for '52-'53, beginning a year of hard work and real achievement in MADramatics. The gay tale of the misadventures of high school journalists was a hit that will be long remembered. The Christmas Pageant, "Come Let Us Adore Him," was a new departure in Yuletide shows at our school, and was well received by student body and community alike.

Mr. George Moon, drama coach, scored again with "Master Pierre Patelin," the rollicking Pasadena Tournament entry of MAD.

This year's Senior Play, "You Can't Take It With You," climaxed a terrific season of high quality high-school dramatics, a season which has kept MAD's Thespians reputation on top.

As a galaxy is made up of many different types of stars, our school is made up of many clubs. Within these organizations are myriads of personalities.

From a distance a galaxy looks as if it is composed of faint, unimportant stars, but when viewed more closely, it is filled with great worlds. From a distance our clubs seem to be composed of unimportant members, but in reality these people are the necessary part of our world of diversions, our world of relaxation, our club world.

SCHOLARSHIP SOCIETY

These clever scholars know that good grades are like good investments; they pay great dividends . . . a carefree day at the beach, the glamorous Gold Seal Banquet, a movie and dinner in Los Angeles. Good grades . . . great dividends.

Pep leader Gene, vivacious Loretta, enthusiastic Chuck gave a new twist to yell leading this year with their subtle psychological approach and fluent vocabulary. They led us through the year to a championship in school spirit.

More than leaders in pep, Chuck won the honor of bestest in personality, Loretta spent long summer hours creating pom-poms for our football games, and Gene displayed one of his many talents as Master of Ceremonies at our noon dances.

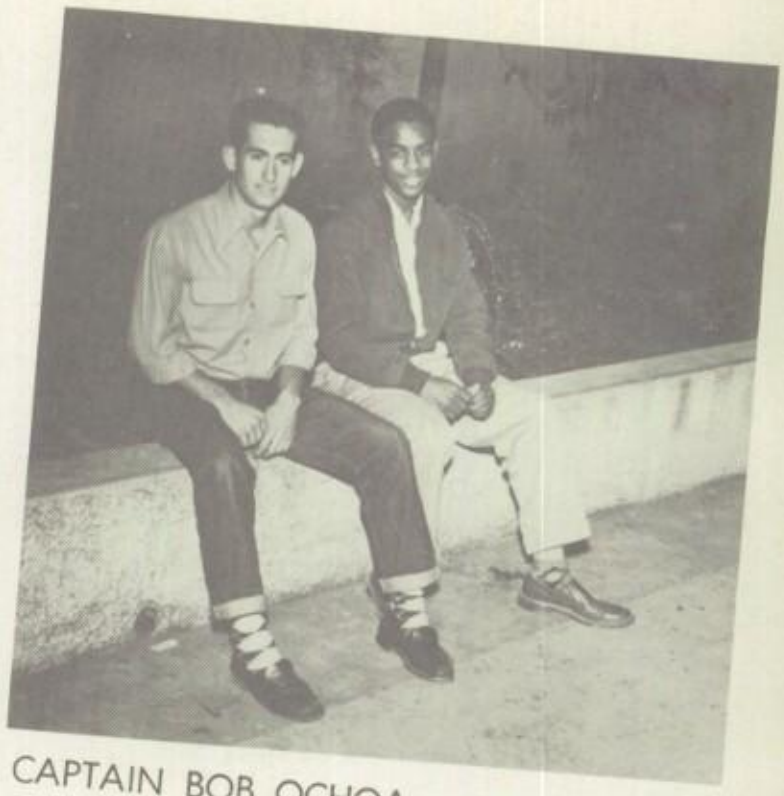
LINE COACH JOHN DANIELS
HEAD COACH CLAUDE WALKER



CAPTAIN BOB OCHOA
WILDCAT OF THE YEAR ELLIS JOHNSON

To begin the 1952 football season, M.A.D.'s varsity gridders displayed the desire and the ability to repeat last year's record and again become League Champs. Without being scored upon they went through their practice games to set a new Pacific League record. The first two League tilts saw our 'Cats defeat rugged grid teams, one of which, Whittier, was predicted to take the League Crown. They trounced a supposedly strong Alhambra team, gave Pasadena a run for its money, and gave the eventual title holders one of the toughest games of their schedule.

Our Varsity

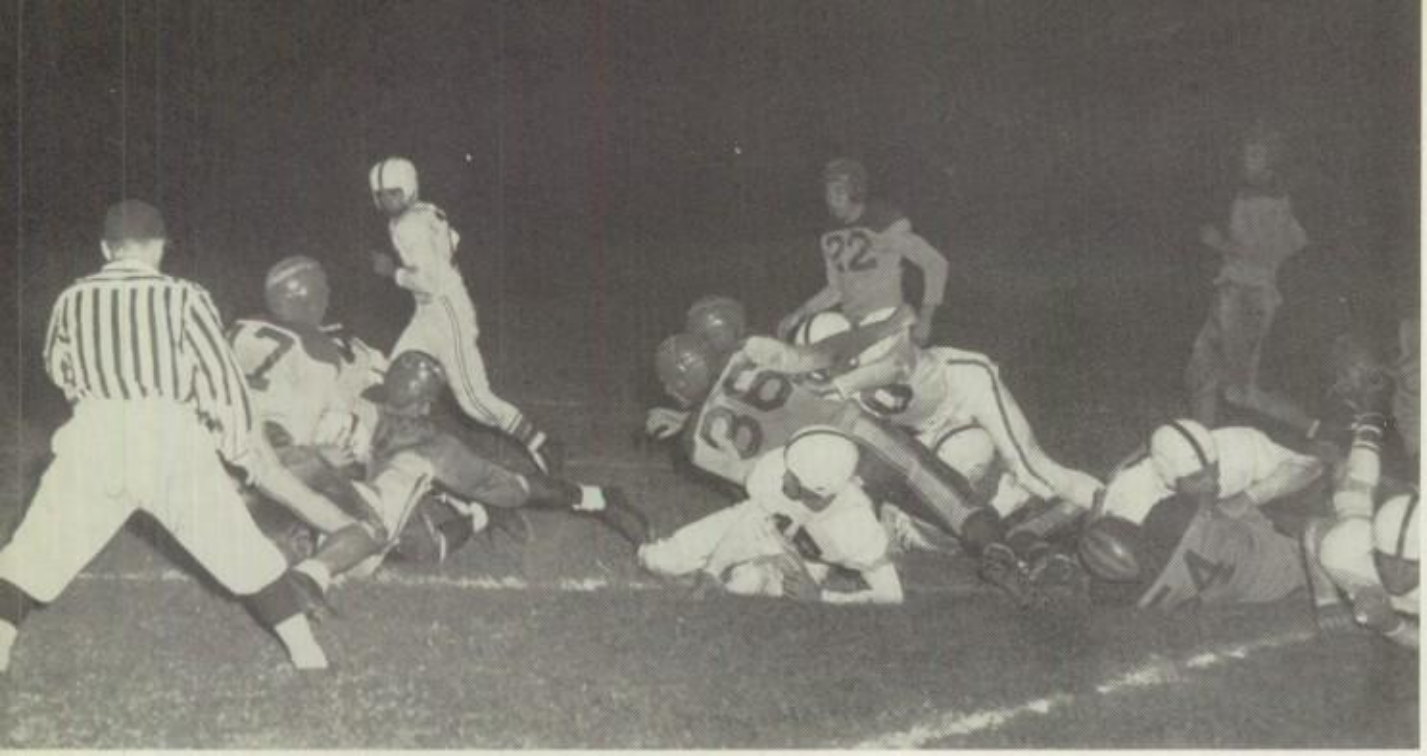
Grid Machine



M.A.D.—18 MUIR—0

Sparked by a good running attack, important downfield blocking, and a number of pass interceptions, the 1952 Wildcat varsity downed the John Muir Colts. Our boys showed good form as well as that "fighting Wildcat spirit."

M.A.D.—14 FULLERTON—0

The second game of the season saw the Green and White squad again hold its opponents scoreless by scalping the Indians from Fullerton. Our scores were made on a Fullerton fumble, picked up by a 'Cat, and on a spectacular 38-yard pass play.

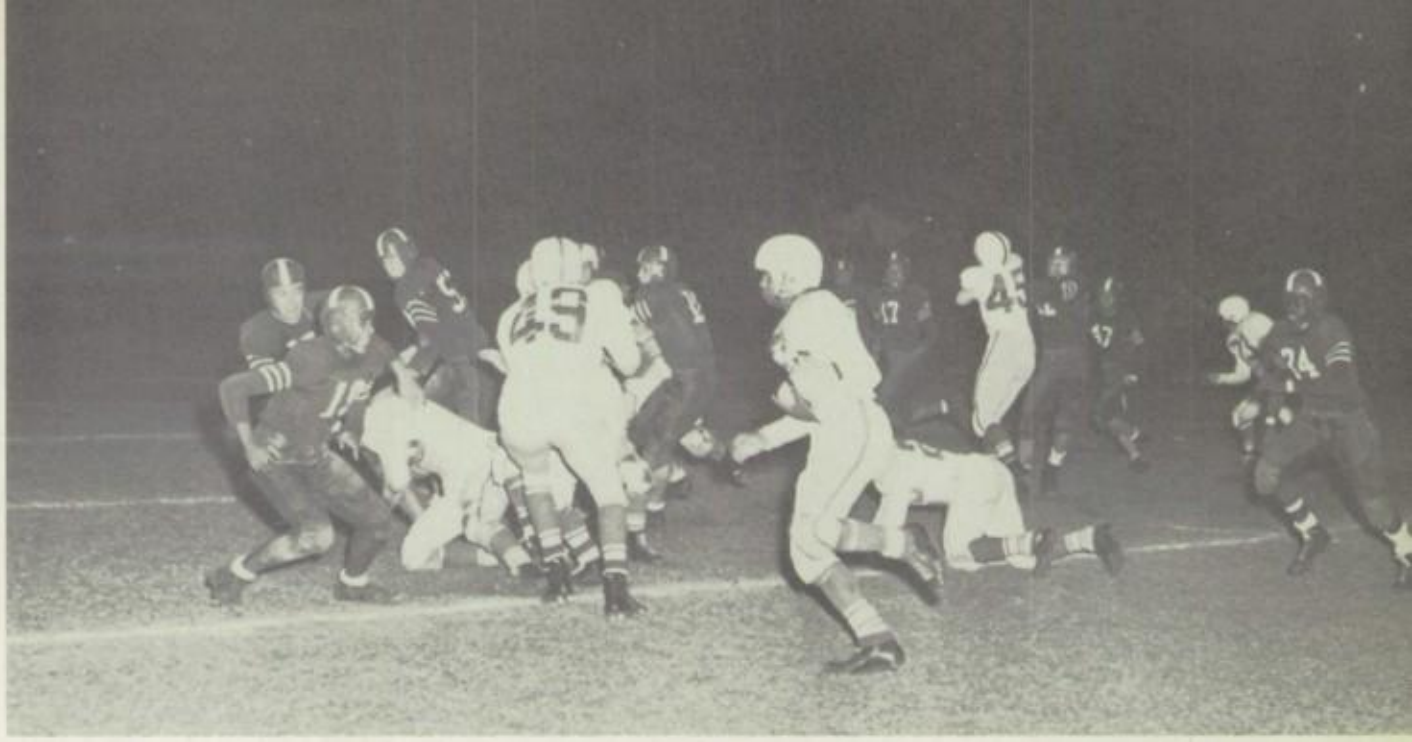
Dick Town, QB

Earl Clark, RE

Chuck Sihler, RT

M.A.D.—21 POMONA—0

Seeking revenge for last year's defeat at the hands of Pomona, the spirited Wildcats were all out to slaughter the Red Devils. Because of the loss of their championship one-man team of Marty Keough, the Devils were lost when faced with M.A.D.'s brilliant gridders.



M.A.D.—32 ROSEMEAD—0

Our Wildcats, after pounding the Panthers to the tune of 32-0, set a new Pacific League record by winning all practice games by shutout scores. Coach Walker cleared the bench to give all the boys experience before encountering some of the toughest League competition in history.

M.A.D.—19 KEPPEL—14

The unbeaten, untied Wildcats entered their first League game against Mark Keppel's Aztecs in one of the most gruelling games of the year. An overflow crowd saw the fighting Wildcats top the Aztecs 19-14, but lose George Meyer and Bruce Ballard because of injuries.

M.A.D.—36 WHITTIER—20

M.A.D.'s valiant Wildcats scored their sixth straight triumph of the year by smashing the Whittier Cardinals 36-20. Several long runs, together with a rugged defense, were the deciding factors for the 'Cats. The Cards were pre-season favorites to cop the League Crown.

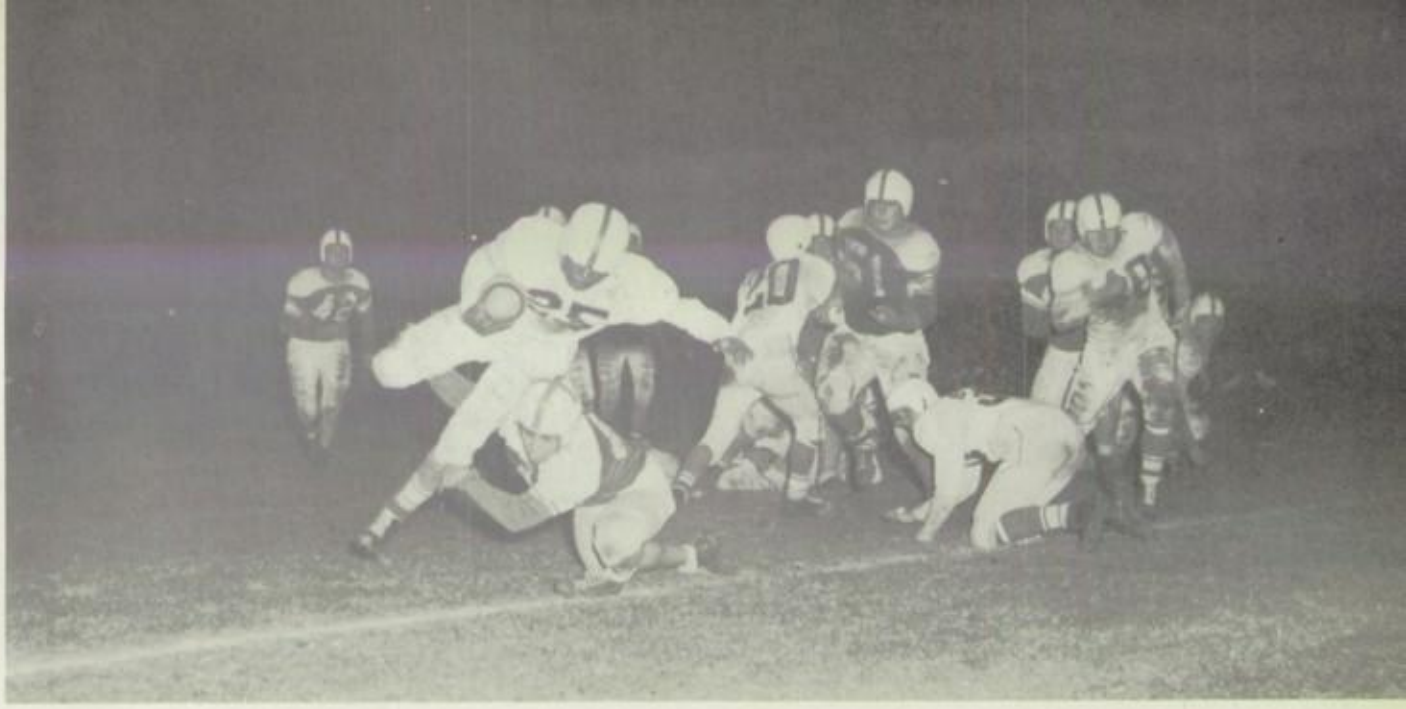
M.A.D.—0 EL MONTE—12

Suffering the first defeat of the season, the 'Cats were rudely upset by a husky El Monte team. The stubborn defense and devastating offense of both teams combined to make a tight-fought contest, which ultimately decided the winner of the League Crown.



M.A.D.—33 ALHAMBRA—14

After being rained out twice, the rival game with the Moors was finally played, ending the season for both teams. This final game saw a closely-fought first half, followed by a slaughter in the second half by the local 'Cats.

Playing far below their capacity, M.A.D.'s gridders lost to the Bullpups, who played their best game of the season against the Wildcats. Although the spirit was good, the 'Cats couldn't seem to get rolling. The loss gave the 'Cats a two-win, two-loss record before meeting Alhambra in a game postponed because of rain.

Ray Infantino

Harvey Hubler

Coaching the Junior Varsity football squad for his second straight year, Coach Harvey Hubler injected the fighting Wildcat spirit into this year's Jayvees. Although the games lacked the winning scores, the boys had a desire to learn and to play clean, hard football that was tops. This desire will provide an excellent background for future varsity grid teams. The Jayvees were captained by Raymond Infantino.

Monrovia's "Busy Bees"

With a skeleton of last year's championship Cee team, this year's Bees showed plenty of spark and hustle. Under the able mentorship of Keith Broaders, the Bees beat many of their bitter rivals and were barely edged out in other tilts. The team showed potential greatness with many outstanding boys, such as Captain Jack Beschta.

Monrovia's Dee basketball squad may well be proud of its 1953 season. With a six win, four loss record these future stars really put forth plenty of effort to gain the fundamentals of the game. Captain Bill Bornt was just one of the many fine players.

The Cross Country Boys

Many long hours of hard training went into this year's cross country squad. Under the direction of Coach Eugene McAllister, the boys gained track knowledge besides getting themselves in condition for the regular track season in the spring. The boys had an average season in League competition. They elected Colin Neblett as their captain.

League Champs

Boasting a number of returning lettermen and many stars up from the Bee and Cee teams, the varsity track team this year won laurels to be proud of. At the time the '53 Monrovian went to press, the team had already captured first place in both the Pasadena games and the El Monte relays. Their coaches, Mr. Verl Murray and Mr. Claude Walker, term the squad as "the best in many a year."

Our "Bee" Tracksters

Mr. Claude Walker

Mr. Verl Murray

The Bee trackmen, under the tutorship of Coaches Walker and Murray, worked diligently at improving their form, speed, and distance before entering the varsity ranks next year. A number of fine boys have been spotted on the Bee team who will next year strengthen the varsity squad.

The mighty Cee tracksters are proving to be a tough opponent to conquer. At this writing the Cees are undefeated in competition. Though the Cees lack quantity, they certainly are to be lauded for the quality of work they are doing.

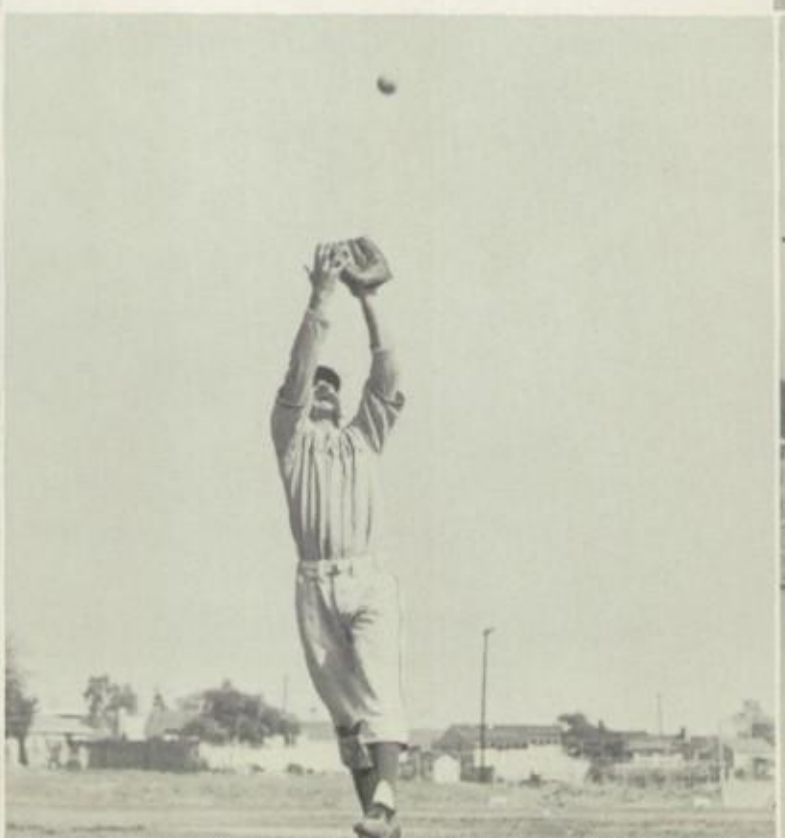
Mr. Keith Broaders

This year again finds our varsity baseball team to be one of the finest in prep ranks. With returning lettermen from last year's championship squad in addition to new talent up from the Jayvees, Coach Keith Broaders looks for another League Championship.

Diamond Doings



Mr. John Daniels

Though the season can't be considered outstanding as far as scores go, the Jayvee horsehiders are working hard to improve their game. At this time they have wins over three strong clubs and four losses. Coach John Daniels and the boys call Arcadia High their most bitter rival.

GIRL'S SPORTS

With the usual shrieks and spills the girls on our campus were very active in the field of sports this past year. Under the skilled leadership of Mrs. Thelma Yenney, Mrs. Ethel Brelos, Mrs. Elizabeth Thornton, Mrs. Mary McKesson, Miss Georgianna Beck, and Mrs. Helen Adams, they reached new heights in all the feminine games. Shouts of joy and disappointment could be heard each gym period as they practiced perfecting their plays and developed new skills. Starting with volleyball, they continued through the year with basketball, speedball, baseball, tennis, and modern dancing.

Nine of our Catskill Racquetteers traveled to Whittier on February eighth to compete in tennis matches. The competition was very stiff, but they came back victorious, winning five out of the nine games played.

G.A.A. PLAY DAY

One of the many activities in which the Girls' Athletic Association took part in this past year was the G.A.A. play day held here at M.A.D. on October 21. The G.A.A. invited five other high schools—Alhambra, Glendale, Montebello, El Monte, and Rosemead—to come and compete in several of the girls' sports. The theme of the play day was Carnival Days. A real calliope was furnished for the occasion, popsicles and cookies were served for refreshment, and the modern dancing class furnished excellent entertainment. The sports played were speedball, volleyball, tennis, basketball, ping-pong, and badminton. The competition was tops and everyone enjoyed the day.

Arlene, Best of luck in the future Beverly Hessen

Dear Arlene

It has been real fabulous this year in history. Even at lunch too. I want to thank you for helping me knit those daggone old socks for Jimmy.

I do hope will have some classes together next year. Have fun this summer and don't do anything I wouldn't do. Be good.

Dear Arlene
See it's been swell browning you, no kidding. I'll always remember all the work you did for me in this - thanks so much - really appreciated it
I want to wish you all happiness in your next year at high school.
Love,
Lauren
